Outlook and mid-term strategy

Guidance confirmed again on 13 November 2023

In € million	2022(R)	2023(G) 	2023(G)
Group	62.3	+10% to +20%	68.5 to 74.8
Project development & sales	28.4	Significant increase	⬆️
Power generation (own parks)	30.0	Below PY	➡️
Operation, development & others	4.5	Below PY	➡️

(R): as reported; (G): guidance.

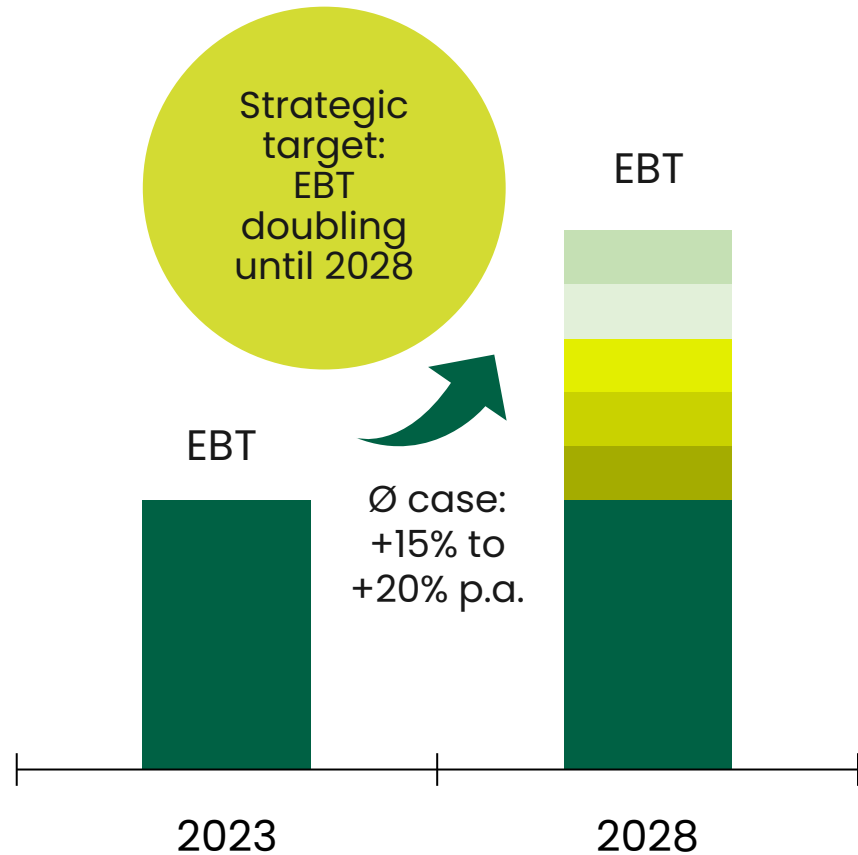

Targets¹ for Q4 2023

- Commissioning of 3 wind parks (~50 MW in total)
- Financial close of several solar parks (up to 200 MWp)
- Additional project sales

¹As project delays can generally arise in project business, which can result in timeline shifts, Energiekontor confirms its guidance as usual on the assumption that those projects relevant to the Group's results will be commissioned as planned and that project sales still under negotiation will be completed as scheduled by the end of the year. Also not taken into account are the unexpected deterioration in meteorological conditions and other unforeseeable events.

Outlook and mid-term strategy

Growth strategy 2023 – 2028

¹Based on the reference year 2023, for which Energiekontor had issued a target Group EBT of € 55 to 60 million as part of its five-year strategy 2018 - 2023. In case of successful implementation, this would result in a Group EBT of around € 120 million for the 2028 financial year.

Key strategic directions

- Growth based on proven organic growth model (50/50 takeover rate)
- Focus on established technologies (onshore wind and solar); further expansion of solar business
- Concentration on current country markets with stable long-term legal, economic and political market environment
- Regional expansion in existing country markets
- Setting up additional regional teams and offices
- Focus on profitability, organizational efficiency and cost leadership

Project pipeline potentials until end of 2028

- Realisation volume of 3 to 4 GW in total
- Expansion of Group-owned portfolio of 1.5 to 2.0 GW
