1. Requests for items of business to be set out on the agenda pursuant to Section 122 (2) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG)

Shareholders whose shares account in aggregate for one-twentieth (5 percent) of the share capital, which currently corresponds to 697,968 shares, or the proportionate amount of 500,000.00 euros (equivalent to 500,000 shares), may demand that items be set out in the agenda and published in accordance with Section 122 (2) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG). Demands for additional items on the agenda must be addressed to the Management Board in writing (Section 126 of the German Civil Code (BGB)) and be received by the company at least 30 days prior to the Annual General Meeting (not including the date of receipt and the date of the Annual General Meeting), i.e. no later than the end of the day on 28 April 2024 (24.00 hours/midnight, Central European Summer Time, CEST). Demands for additional items received at a later date will not be considered. The demand must be addressed to the Management Board of Energiekontor AG at the following address:

Pursuant to Section 122 (2), (1) sentence 3 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG), the applicants must prove that they have held the shares for at least 90 days prior to the date of receipt of the demand and that they will hold the shares until the Management Board makes a decision on the demand. Periods defined in Section 70 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) can also be taken into consideration in calculating this 90-day period.

Additions to the agenda that are to be announced will be published in the Federal Gazette immediately after receipt of the request and forwarded for publication to media that can be expected to disseminate the information throughout the European Union, unless they have already been announced with the notice of the meeting. They are also published on the Internet at www.energiekontor.de/en/investor-relations/annual-general-meeting and communicated to the shareholders.

The relevant sections of the German Stock Corporation Act upon which those shareholder rights are based are as follows:

Section 122 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Convening a meeting upon the request of a minority

- (1) A general meeting shall be convened if shareholders whose aggregate holding is not less than one-twentieth of the share capital require such meeting in writing, stating the purpose and grounds; such request shall be addressed to the management board. The articles of incorporation may provide that the right to request a general meeting is to depend on another form and on holding a lower proportion of the share capital. The applicants have to prove that they have been shareholders for at least 90 days prior to the day of the receipt of the demand and that they will continue to hold the shares until the decision of the managing board regarding their request is made. Section 121 para. 7 shall apply correspondingly.
- (2) In the same way shareholders, whose shares amount in aggregate to not less than one-twentieth of the share capital or represent a proportional amount of not less than 500,000 Euro, may request to have items placed on the agenda and published. Every request for a new agenda item must be accompanied by an explanation of the reasons therefor or a proposed resolution. The request in accordance with sentence 1 must be received by the company at least 24 days, in case of public companies at least 30 days prior to the general meeting; whereby the day of the receipt is not counted.
- (3) If any such request is not complied with, the court may authorize the shareholders who made the request to convene a general meeting or publish such items. At the same time the court may appoint the chairman of the meeting. The notice of the meeting or the publication shall refer to such authorization. An appeal may be made against the decision of the court. The applicants have to prove that they will continue to hold the shares until the decision of the court is made.
- (4) The company shall bear the costs of the general meeting and, in the case of paragraph (3), also the court costs if the court grants the application.

Section 124 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Publication of requests for supplements; proposals for resolutions (excerpt)

- (1) If the minority has requested pursuant to Section 122 para. 2 that items shall be added to the agenda, these items shall be published either upon convening the meeting or immediately following receipt of the request. Section 121 para. 4 shall apply analogously; moreover, Section 121 para. 4a shall apply analogously to public companies. Publication and submission shall be made in the same way as applicable for convening the meeting.

Section 121 of the German Stock Corporation Act: General provisions (excerpt)

- (4) The convening of the general meeting shall be published in the company's journals. If the shareholders of the company are known by name, the shareholders' meeting may be convened by registered letter, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise; the day of dispatch shall be considered the day of publication. A notification to those registered in the shareholders' register is sufficient.
- (4a) In case of public companies which have not exclusively issued registered shares or which do not send the convention directly to the shareholders pursuant to para. 4 sentence 2, the notice shall, at the latest on the date of announcement, be furnished to such suitable media as may be expected to disseminate the information throughout the European Union.

- (7) In case of deadlines and dates which are calculated back from the date of the meeting, the day of the meeting itself shall not be included in the calculation. Adjourning the meeting from a Sunday, Saturday or a holiday to a preceding or following working day shall not be an option. Sections 187 to 193 of the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch) shall not be applied analogously. In case of unlisted companies, the articles may provide for a different calculation of the deadline.

Section 70 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Computation of the period of shareholding

If the exercise of rights arising from the share is dependent on the shareholder having been the holder of the share for a certain period of time, a claim for transfer of ownership against a credit institution, a financial services institution, a securities institution or an enterprise operating pursuant to § 53 paragraph 1 sentence 1 or § 53b paragraph 1 sentence 1 or paragraph 7 of the German Banking Act shall be deemed equivalent to ownership. The period of ownership of a predecessor in title shall be attributed to the shareholder if he acquired the share free of charge, from his trustee, as universal successor, in the event of the dissolution of a community or in the event of a portfolio transfer pursuant to section 13 of the Insurance Supervision Act or section 14 of the Building Savings Bank Act.

Countermotions and election proposals addressed differently will not be considered.

Shareholder motions and election proposals to be made accessible in accordance with Sections 126 and 127 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) that are received by the company at the above address by the end of the day on 14 May 2024 (24.00 hours/midnight, Central European Summer Time, CEST) at the latest will be made accessible on the company's website at www.energiekontor.de/en/investor-relations/annual-general-meeting, provided that the other conditions of a publication obligation in accordance with Sections 126 and 127 of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) are met, including the name of the shareholder and any reasons. Any statements by the management on any countermotions or election proposals will also be published at the above internet address.

Please note that even if countermotions and election proposals have already been submitted to the company in advance, they will only be considered at the Annual General Meeting if they are submitted (again) verbally. This does not affect the right of shareholders to submit countermotions to items on the agenda or nominations for election during the Annual General Meeting.

The relevant sections of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) upon which those shareholder rights are based and which also set forth under which preconditions counterproposals and election proposals do not need to be made available are as follows:

3. Right to information pursuant to Section 131 (1) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG)

At the Annual General Meeting, any shareholder or shareholder representative may request information from the Management Board on company matters, the company's legal and business relationships with affiliated companies and the situation of the Group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements, provided that the information is necessary for the proper assessment of an item on the agenda and there is no statutory right to refuse to provide information. Requests for information must generally be made verbally during the discussion at the Annual General Meeting. The Management Board may refuse to provide information under the conditions specified in Section 131 (3) of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG).

The relevant sections of the German Stock Corporation Act upon which those shareholder rights are based and which also set forth under which preconditions the Executive Management Board can refuse to answer are as follows:

Section 131 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Shareholders right to information (excerpt)

- (1) Each shareholder shall upon request be provided with information at a general meeting by the executive management board regarding the company's affairs, to the extent that such information is necessary to permit a proper evaluation of the relevant item on the agenda. If a company makes use of the simplified procedure pursuant to section 266 para. 1 sentence 3, section 276 or section 288 of the German Commercial Code, each shareholder may request that the annual financial statements be presented to him at the general meeting on such annual financial statements in the form which would have been used if such provisions on simplified procedure were not applied. The disclosure obligation of the executive management board of the parent company (section 290 para. 1 sentence 2 of the German Commercial Code) in the general meeting, to which the consolidated financial statements and the consolidated management report is presented, also extends to the situation of the consolidated group of companies and of the enterprises included in the consolidated financial statements.

- (3) The executive management board may refuse to provide information:
 1. to the extent that providing such information is, according to sound business judgement, likely to cause not insignificant damage to the company or a connected enterprise;
 2. to the extent that such information relates to tax valuations or the amount of individual taxes;
 3. on the difference between the value at which items are shown in the annual balance sheet and the higher value of such items, unless the general meeting is to determine the annual financial statements;
 4. on methods of arriving at balances and valuation, if disclosure of such methods in the notes suffices to provide a factually accurate picture of the condition of the company's assets, financial position and profitability within the meaning of section 264 para. 2 of the German Commercial Code; this shall not apply if the general meeting is to determine the annual financial statements;
 5. insofar as provision of the information would render the executive management board criminally liable;

- (5) A shareholder who has been denied information may request that his question, and the reason for which the information was denied, be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. In the case of a virtual general meeting, it shall be ensured that each shareholder who is electronically connected to the meeting can submit his request pursuant to sentence 1 by means of electronic communication.
